

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

The Silence of the Dark.

My neighbor's lamp, across the way,
Throws dancing lights upon my wall;
They come and go in passing play,
And then the sudden shadows fall.

My friend's white soul through eyes and lips
Shone out on me but yesterday
In radiant warmth; now, swift eclipse,
Has left those windows cold and gray.

Ah, if I could but look behind
The still, dark barrier of that night,
And there—undimmed, unwavering—find
That life and love were all alight!

—Charles Baxter Goring, in June Munsey.

Goat—McNutt.

On June the 7th, at one o'clock, "Haywood," the home of Mr. William Sterrett, near the Rockbridge Baths, was the scene of a lovely wedding. Miss Frances Brown MacNutt was married to Mr. Robert Leslie Clark, of New York, by the Rev. Henry Miller, of Bethesda Church, and was witnessed by many friends and relatives of the bride. The wedding was unique in its beauty on the lawn, under the beautiful old trees, and the bride procession winding in and out among the trees over the lawn made a charming picture. The wedding march was skillfully rendered by Mrs. Gibson and Miss Mary Gibson.

The bride's ornaments were pearls, and she wore a gown of white organdy, trimmed with lilies of the valley. Miss Betty Morrison, of Rockbridge Baths, was maid of honor and carried pink roses. Mr. John Stratton, of Covington, Va., was best man.

The bridesmaids, who were gowned in white organdy and carried white carnations, were Miss Eliza H. McCorkle and Miss Evelyn Davis. The groomsmen were Mr. Samuel Dunlap, Mr. Hugh Wade, Dr. H. R. Morrison and Mr. Baxter McCorkle. Miss Amelia Sterrett, Miss Mary Terry, Miss Hattie Hutecheson, Miss Betty Morrison, Miss Lulu McCorkle and Miss Rebecca Sterrett, the little friends of the bride, held the ribbons.

An elegant lunch was served in the dining room, which was decorated with ferns and roses. The bride received many friends and relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Good left on the evening train for Norton, which will be their home.

Mrs. Royall Entertains.

Mrs. William L. Royall, of No. 812 Park Avenue, will entertain at a dance and lawn party Wednesday evening, June 14th, in honor of her daughter, Miss Anna Keith Royall, and her friends, Miss Betty Morrison, of Rockbridge Baths, Miss Harriet James, of Danville, and Miss Lulu Antrim, of Charlottesville, Va., who are her guests at present.

Wedding Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. James W. Smith, of Bedford City, Va., announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Ethel Bell, to Dr. George Sheppe, of Warrenton, Ore.

The wedding will be a pretty home affair, with only the immediate relatives of the family present. The celebration will be at noon on Wednesday, June 21st, with the Rev. Daniel Smith, of St. John's Episcopal Church, as celebrant.

Medal for Kindness.

The gold medal, given by Mrs. W. S. Murray to the kindest child in the Masonic Home of Virginia, was won by Adeline Tapp, of Norfolk, and presented by Major A. R. Courtney.

Bristow—Christian.

A wedding of interest to Virginians took place Thursday in the home of the bride, No. 108 Madison Avenue, Baltimore, when Miss Emerald Alvin Christian, daughter of Mrs. Christian and the late Dr. John Hunt Christian, was married to Mr. Myron Edison Bristow, Commonwealth's Attorney for Gloucester county, Va.

The drawing room of the Christian home, where the ceremony was performed, was prettily decorated with palms and pink peonies. The bride walked to the altar with her brother, Mr. Charles M. Christian, of New York, who gave her in marriage. She was gowned in white silk not over silk, worn with a tulle veil, and carried a white prayer book with pendant sprays of lilies of the valley. Miss Margaret Virginia Simpson, her maid of honor, wore pink and held a cluster of pink roses.

Mr. Upshur Wilson, of Charles City, Va., was best man, other attendants being Messrs. Charles M. and John Hunt Christian.

A wedding breakfast was served after the service for the immediate friends of the contracting parties. Among those present were Mrs. John Hunt Christian, Mrs. William Wilson, Mrs. Charles M. Christian, Mrs. George E. Hardy, Misses Gertrude and Stella Cassard, Miss Elsie Cassard, of Gloucester, and Misses Mary Hunt and Martha Emerald Christian. Mr. and Mrs. Bristow, after a honeymoon spent in Norfolk, at Virginia Beach and Old Point, will make their home in Gloucester county.

Canter—McLeod.

The Lynchburg Advance of yesterday contained the following notice of a wedding, in which Richmond people are interested. The Advance says:

At noon today a quiet wedding took place at No. 107 Federal Street, the residence of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Winchester, when the Rev. Dr. J. B. Winchester, of Stephens City, was united in marriage to Mr. J. Harvey Canter, a leading merchant of Canterbury, Va., the officiating minister being Rev. Ernest Stevens, pastor of Memorial Methodist Church. On account of illness in the family only relatives were present. The parlor in which the ceremony took place was prettily decorated in green and white and appropriate selections were rendered by Mrs. Walter B. Ryan, who presided at the piano.

Mr. Millard Canter, brother of the groom, was best man. The maid of honor was Miss Willie Virginia Chipley, of Stephens City, who was becomingly attired in white chiffon and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

The bride was gowned in white silk mull over white tulle, trimmed with lace and carried bride roses. After the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Canter took the train for Richmond, Va., to spend a few days at the Rockbridge Baths, before going to their future home at Canterbury.

Monument Unveiled.

Colonel and Mrs. J. H. Thorpe and Major W. B. Hicks, of the North Carolina Confederate Veterans' Association, attended the reception given last evening in the hall of the Bethel Monument in the unveiling of the Bethel Monument to-day.

Miss Frances W. Kyle, the sponsor for North Carolina, accompanied by Miss Mallett, from the J. E. B. Stuart Chapter, of the Confederate of the Confederacy, at Rockbridge, and Mrs. Maggie Taylor, the Virginia sponsor, were also among the reception guests. The sponsors are being entertained during their stay at the Augusta Hotel.

Tinsley—Hancock.

Invitations have been issued by Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Crozier, of Roanoke, for the marriage of their niece, Miss Mary

THE COHEN COMPANY

Our Saturday Specials.

Saturday is the busy woman's day for shopping. We are always ready with something to pay for their trouble.

Batiste Corsets, 50c.

These are the regular $1 models and are the new shapes. Silk Ribbon Girldies as dainty as a flower, wanted shades, worth double at 98c. each.

60C. LACE STOCKINGS 29c. An import order has just come in. This is a good chance to lay in your summer's supply.

25C. PEARL BUCKLES, 17c. This is one of our especially good bargains.

$1.25 TO $1.75 VEILS, 29c. Hundreds to choose from 1 1/2 yards long, all colors. A lot of Mourning Veils are less than half price.

3-INCH RIBBONS, 7c. This 3-inch Taffeta Ribbon at 7c. a yard is a wonder.

MEN'S HALF HOSE, 3c. The regular price is three pairs for 25c., these are 3c. a pair.

3 o'Clock Sale of Stockings

AT 3 P. M. PROMPTLY—60 dozen Women's 19c to 25c Black Lace Stockings, made of fine French Lisle, will go on sale at 10c a pair. Some have slight imperfections.

POEMS YOU OUGHT TO KNOW

Whatever your occupation may be, and however crowded your hours with affairs, do not fail to secure at least a few minutes every day for refreshment of your inner life with a bit of poetry.—Professor Charles Elliot Norton.

No. 519.

A CRY.

By HERBERT EDWIN CLARKE.

Herbert Edwin Clarke was born at Chatteris, Isle of Ely, in 1852. He was educated in schools conducted by the Quakers. He has published "Songs in Exile" and "Storm-drift."

O, I am weary of all,
Of men and their love and their hate;
I have been long enough Life's thrall
And the toy of a tyrant Fate.

I would have nothing but rest;
I would not struggle again;
Take me now to thy breast,
Earth, sweet mother of men.

Hide me and let me sleep;
Give me a lonely tomb
So close and so dark and so deep
I shall hear no trumpet of doom.

There let me lie forgot
When the dead at its blast are gone;
Give me to hear it not,
But only to slumber on.

This is the fate I crave,
For I look to the end and see
If there be not rest in the grave
There will never be rest for me.

This series began in The Times-Dispatch Sunday, October 11, 1903. One is published each day.

Effie Hancock, one of the Magic City's most attractive and popular young ladies, will be the guest of honor at the annual picnic of the Magic City Club, which will be held at the Rockbridge Baths, June 24th, at half-past three o'clock.

White and Green Reception. Drawing room decorations were in white and green for the reception, given last afternoon from 4 to 7 o'clock, and lasting evening from 8 to 11, by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Strauss and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph L. Levy, in honor of their sons, Arthur Strauss and Leo Levy, who were confirmed in Temple Beth Abrahah Friday morning by the Rev. Dr. E. N. Callish.

The receiving party was assisted by Mrs. Arthur Levy, Miss Florence Levy, Mrs. Munro Levy and Mrs. Samuel Rosendorf. Refreshments were served in the dining room, where the color scheme, in white and green, was carried out.

Personal Mention. Invitations have been received for the marriage of Miss Frances Langhorne, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Nelson Langhorne, to Mr. Stanley Vernon Keith, the ceremony to take place in the Church of the Good Shepherd, at Arlington, Va., on Wednesday, June 14th. The Bedford Democrat in referring to the marriage, pays the young couple the following compliment: "Mr. Keith, who for a number of years engaged in the practice of law at the Bedford bar, is greatly admired for his splendid legal ability, honorable, high-toned character and genial manner, and he has many friends here who are deeply interested in his career. His fiancée has on several occasions visited relatives here, and all who met her were fascinated by her charming, magnetic personality. Very sincere congratulations and good wishes will be wanted from his former home at Bedford City."

Mrs. D. R. Williams, of Camden, S. C., paid $200 for a painting of the Madonna, attributed to Annibale Carracci, a noted sixteenth century Italian artist. The painting belonged to Miss Mary Lyle Clark, now of Baltimore, and was brought to this country by the founder of the Clark family in Virginia, who came from England and settled in Powhatan county, during the seventeenth century. A series of rare old engravings in color, also owned by Miss Clark, went to the same purchaser. The engravings were originally purchased over a hundred years ago by the Clark family, and are of the highest quality. They are excellent examples of a branch of the art of engraving of which but few specimens are now in existence.

The marriage of Miss Mary Semmes Forbes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Murray Forbes, of Warrenton, Va., to Mr. Edwin B. King, of New York, is announced for Saturday, June 24th, at St. John's Church, Warrenton.

Mrs. John H. Bridges, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Joseph C. West, of Richmond, sailed from Norfolk Thursday night on the Providence Steamer for Lowell, Mass., where they will spend a month with friends.

Miss Mildred Hill is visiting Miss Fannie Harrison in Anshers.

Mrs. Harry L. Shaffer, of Lynchburg, is the guest of friends in the city.

Miss Fannie Mills, of Louisa, is spending several weeks with friends in Richmond.

Mr. W. F. Gordon is visiting his niece, Miss Lizzie G. Reynolds and Mrs. E. R. Martin, on Main Street, Fredericksburg.

Mrs. John G. Euliss and little son are the guests of Mrs. Euliss's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Owens, in Fredericksburg.

A called meeting of the Hollywood Memorial Association will be held Tuesday forenoon at eleven o'clock in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church.

The Association for the Preservation of Virginia Antiquities will hold its summer meeting this afternoon, June 10th, at 5 o'clock, in the rooms of the Virginia Historical Society, No. 707 East Franklin Street.

This meeting is for the general association and every member is urged to attend. Postal notices have not been sent out, as the funds of the association are limited, and members are requested to bring all efforts to prevent assembling through information given by the press. A member will give an account of the historic event emphasized by the meeting of June 10th.

CARGO OF COTTON AFIRE IN BIG LINER

(By Associated Press.) NEW ORLEANS, June 9.—The cotton in the hold of the Leyland liner Manhattan was found afire while the ship was loading at Chalmette wharf last night. After an all night fight by the crew, the ship was towed down to the city and the fire department summoned, but all efforts to prevent the fire's spreading failed. The hatches were battered down to-night and steam poured into the holds, and if the fire is not out by morning the holds will be flooded and the cargo taken out.

OYSTER BAY AROUSED.

Old Residents Anxious About President's Virginia Purchase.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) OYSTER BAY, N. J., June 9.—The news that President Roosevelt had just purchased fifteen acres of land and a frame house in Albemarle county, Virginia, has caused surprise among the old residents in spite of the fact that the President intended to change his summer residence was relayed yesterday by advices from Washington saying he expected to be at his old home by June 12.

Still there is speculation about the significance of the Albemarle county house, and the fact that the President is known to be attached to this part of Long Island. Recently he started a large addition, which is now being completed, to the house on Sagamore Hill. This is in the form of a "damp-proof" library, 42x36 feet, which is to be used as a library. It is built of tile and brick. There is little doubt that he is looking forward to putting in many long hours in this library.

RURAL CARRIERS.

And Postmasters Named for Virginia and North Carolina.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—Rural carriers appointed:

Virginia—Fredericks Hall, route 1, William M. Talley carrier, Morris Francisco substitute; Albemarle county, route 1, Willard H. Walker carrier, William R. Smith substitute.

North Carolina—Pinetops, route 1, George T. Sugg carrier, J. R. Walston substitute.

Pinkney Mitchell appointed postmaster at Beth, Jackson county, North Carolina, vice Daniel S. Bryson, resigned. These increases in salaries of North Carolina postmasters announced to-day: Brevard, $1,300 to $1,400; Currituck, $1,100 to $1,200; Edenton, $1,000 to $1,100; Raleigh, $1,100 to $1,200; Red Springs, $1,400 to $1,500.

Gaynor-Greene Appeal.

(By Associated Press.) MONTREAL, June 9.—Mr. Taschereau, of Quebec, counsel for Gaynor and Greene, arrived here to-night and announced that he had filed a notice of appeal to-day of an appeal to the Supreme Court of Canada in the Greene-Gaynor case. As the Supreme Court does not sit again until October, Gaynor and Greene will remain in the Montreal jail for some time.

Merchants Will Pay.

MUSKOGEE, I. T., June 8.—Mayor Fite has dismissed the charges against the Indian police arrested by the city's authorities charged with assault in closing the shops of merchants who refused to pay the tribal tax. There will be no further arrests.

There seems to be a general understanding that the merchants will pay the tax.

Resolutions on Lee.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—The Mississippi Society of Washington at a session held May 9th at Marshall Hall, Maryland, adopted a series of resolutions paying a notable tribute to the late General Fitzhugh Lee. A copy of the paper was ordered to be sent to the family of General Lee.

FASHION HINTS

LADIES' TUCKED SHIRT WAIST. No. 3018—A practical style ornamented with white, of white, and having an applied front section. It is developed on a lining. Straps of velvet and small velvet buttons serve as trimming. Material for reproduction are French or English flannel, albatross, cashmere, serge, lousine and taffeta.

Pattern of No. 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42 inches, bust measure. Size 36 requires 3 1/2 yards of material 27 inches wide.

This pattern can be gotten at The Cohen Company for 10c.—ADV.

Miss Jane Wright and Mr. A. H. Trane, of Louisville, Ky., will be married Monday afternoon, June 12th, at 5 o'clock, by the Rev. Dr. E. N. Callish. Miss Wright is a sister of Mrs. Samuel Bachrach, No. 205 East Marshall Street.

Miss Katherine Keith has returned to her home near Warrenton, after an absence of nine months, spent in travel abroad.

Miss Elsie Ellis is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Thomas Davidson, on Chestnut Avenue, Newport News.

Mr. Joseph T. Johnson, who has been in Richmond several months at a Business College, is spending a few days at his home, at Aldy, Va.

Mrs. Edith Johnson is summing with her daughter, Mrs. H. Anderson, at West Point, Va.

Mr. Marsden Smith, a student of Fredericksburg College, has come to Richmond to have his throat treated.

Mrs. John Hill, of Norfolk, and Mrs. Joseph C. West, of Richmond, sailed from Norfolk Thursday night on the Providence Steamer for Lowell, Mass., where they will spend a month with friends.

Miss Mildred Hill is visiting Miss Fannie Harrison in Anshers.

Mrs. Harry L. Shaffer, of Lynchburg, is the guest of friends in the city.

Miss Fannie Mills, of Louisa, is spending several weeks with friends in Richmond.

Mr. W. F. Gordon is visiting his niece, Miss Lizzie G. Reynolds and Mrs. E. R. Martin, on Main Street, Fredericksburg.

Mrs. John G. Euliss and little son are the guests of Mrs. Euliss's parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Owens, in Fredericksburg.

A called meeting of the Hollywood Memorial Association will be held Tuesday forenoon at eleven o'clock in the lecture room of the Second Presbyterian Church.

HISTORICAL COMMISSION

Will Publish Volume On State Relations With Federal Government.

RALEIGH FIREMEN TO CONTEST

Large Party Leaves for Virginia to Attend Exercises at Bethel.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

RALEIGH, N. C., June 8.—The North Carolina Historical Commission, as reappointed some days ago by Governor Glenn, last night reorganized by the election of W. J. Peple, Raleigh, chairman, and R. D. W. Connor, Raleigh, secretary. Other members of the commission are Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, Professor Lee Roper, of Chapel Hill, and W. J. Blount, of Roper, N. C. It was decided to issue, with the least possible delay, a volume that will review North Carolina's relations with the Federal government since the formation of the Union.

Judge Purnell, in the United States Circuit Court, makes an order affirming the sale of the fine steamboat City of Fayetteville, at Wilmington, to S. H. McRae, for the bondholders, for the ten per cent. increase bid by D. L. Gore, having been withdrawn.

The Judge also affirming the sale of 59,000 acres of land in Tyrrell county for $17,000. In the case of Persons vs. Virgman; D. M. Meekins, commissioner of sale.

The Teague Fire Company, of Raleigh, decided last night to send a team to Winston-Salem July 18th to contest for prizes in the State Firemen's Tournament. Charles U. Harris was elected captain of the race team. They have a $500 hose wagon, the finest in the State.

A party of people left Raleigh this morning for Norfolk to attend the annual unrolling ceremonies on the Bethel battleground to-morrow. Among the most distinguished were Secretary of State J. Bryan Grimes, Chief Justice Walter Clark, Colonel P. A. Olds and R. H. Bradley. The latter was one of the four men who volunteered to go beyond the breastworks at the battle of Bethel and burn a house that was sheltering the enemy.

Mr. Bradley is Secretary of the Bethel Fire Company, and just before the court adjourned for the term a few days ago the justices presented him with a check for an amount to cover his expenses in attending the Bethel celebration.

Governor Glenn returned this morning from Clayton, where he delivered the address last night for the closing of the Clayton High School. He was delighted with his trip and the entertainment accorded him there.

The Carolina Casket Company, of Elkin, was chartered to-day, with $5,000 capital; E. T. Bailey, principal incorporator.

The Hall and Lawrence Lumber Company, of Red Springs, changes its name to the Brown-Shaw Lumber Company, and changes the principal office from Red Springs to Pembroke. D. A. Shaw is principal stockholder.

GRUBB'S BARBECUE.

Davidson County Distiller Entertains His Friends.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) SALISBURY, N. C., June 8.—H. Clay Grubb, of Davidson county, who three weeks ago was accused of the murder of his brother-in-law, O. L. Davis, and who was subsequently shot from ambush near here by Nat Crump, the outlaw, now at Lexington, gave a big barbecue this afternoon at his magnificent country home.

The event was complimentary to the friends of Grubb, two hundred or more of whom were present from Rowan, Davidson and Davidson counties.

Varrants have been issued for the arrest of Grubb, Henry Charles and Dave Leonard, of Davidson, on the charge of conspiracy with Nat Crump in the attempt to assassinate Grubb.

Davis has given bond, but Charles and Leonard have thus far evaded arrest.

FIRE AT IRON GATE.

War Being Made On Mad Dogs in Mountains.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) IRON GATE, VA., June 8.—An old school bus in South Clifton was burned early this morning. It had been repaired and made into a dwelling. A family intended moving into it to-day. Most of the burning in this section it attributed to tramps, who are very careless in handling fires.

The mad dog scare has not subsided. Two made their escape from Clifton Forge after biting two young ladies, the Misses Gillespie, who live just at the foot of the mountain, on the side of the town.

One of the mad dogs was seen here yesterday, but escaped the guns. Mr. Shaffer, who was bitten ten days ago, is doing well under treatment in Richmond, where she will remain twenty-one days.

New London Academy.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) PORTER, N. Y., June 9.—The commencement exercises of New London Academy, a new school, were held to-day. A large number of pupils were present. After the declamations of the pupils the address of the day was delivered by J. D. Eggleston, of New London, who made an eloquent discourse was much appreciated by the audience.

Mr. Eggleston, who is a candidate for superintendent of public instruction, after the ceremonies performed a good mixer and made a splendid impression.

MAKE NO FIGHT ON JOHN SHARP WILLIAMS

Story That His Minority Leadership Would Be Opposed Is Baseless.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.) WASHINGTON, D. C., June 9.—The careful investigation fails to find any respectable basis for the story sent from here that an effort was being among Democrats to elect John Sharp Williams to the House. There have not been, all told, a score of House Democrats here since Congress adjourned. There are now in the city only four—Livingston, of Georgia; Meyer, of Louisiana; Burleson, of Texas; and Sims, of Tennessee. Three of the last named are staunch adherents of Mr. Williams. They know nothing of any movement to defeat Mr. Williams.

The story had it that the effort would be to elect John Sharp Williams, of Mississippi, to the House. Another had it that Mr. Williams, of Virginia, was at the bottom of it. Mr. Ray is not here, but a Virginia friend of his to-day said the story was absurd.

Say Plainly to Your Grocer

That you want LION COFFEE always, and he, being a square man, will not try to sell you anything else. You may not care for our opinion, but

What About the United Judgment of Millions of housekeepers who have used LION COFFEE for over a quarter of a century?

Is there any stronger proof of merit, than the Confidence of the People and ever increasing popularity?

LION COFFEE is carefully selected at the plantation, shipped direct to our various factories, where it is skillfully roasted and carefully packed in sealed packages—unlike loose coffee, which is exposed to germs, dust, insects, etc. LION COFFEE reaches you as pure and clean as when it left the factory. Sold only in 1 lb. packages.

Lion-head on every package.

Save these Lion-heads for valuable premiums.

SOLD BY GROCERS EVERYWHERE

WOOLSON SPICE CO., Toledo, Ohio.

Why Not Incorporate Your Business in Virginia?

Cost is less. Annual taxation less. Laws more liberal.

Than in other Incorporating States. Write to us for information as to costs, and provisions of the law, in Virginia as compared with other States.

VIRGINIA CORPORATION CO. Inc.

American National Bank Building, Richmond, Va.

Officers—J. D. Patton, President; E. B. Sydnor, Vice-President; A. B. Alsp. Secretary; Walter Holladay, Treasurer; J. W. J. Leake, Advisory Counsel; Irving E. Campbell, General Counsel; Geo. C. Gregory, General Manager.

Directors—J. D. Patton, Wm. L. Royall, E. C. Sydnor, Henry W. Wood, J. Allison Hodges, Irving E. Campbell, John Gibson, Jr.

Desiring to demonstrate the value of a new idea, Burrelle will read for you, day by day, all the newspapers of the United States, cutting from them and sending you:

All reference to yourself.

All reference to your work.

All reference to any subject or to any person you are interested in at the cost of a few cents a day.

BURRELLE'S PRESS CLIPPING BUREAU,

21 W. 19th Street, New York.

JOHN GOODE NOW A DOCTOR OF LAW

He Receives An Ovation at William and Mary.

WILLIAM CAIBORNE, REBEL

A Splendid Picture of the Distinguished Patriot Presented to College.